Franz left Stadtfeld in the area of Marienburg, Prussia in 1805 at the age of 50 and began to homestead in the village of Ladekopp, Molotschna. From the start the farm was in the name of Franz's eldest son, Franz. In 1808 they had 1 wagon, 1/2 a plough, 1 harrow, 4 horses, and 8 steer. Father's named confirmed by 1835 Census.

In W. Prussia, Franz may also have lived in Kunzendorf, near Stadtfelde. See note for father of Franz. Baptismal records from 1770ff. exist; not yet seen.

Unruh's lists of 1808 do not list Franz's wife. She probably died before the family moved to Prussia. However it is possible that she immigrated to Russia with the family in 1805 and died before this list was compiled in 1808. According to the 1776 list of Mennonites in Prussia, Anna could be the daughter of Heinrich from Tiegenhof, a clockmaker, or of Wilhelm, also of Tiegenhof, a threadmaker, or of Isaac a board-maker from Stolzenberg near Danzig - there is no mention of an Oehmsen family near Stadtfelde; cf. 1776 cen

M Child 1 Franz Franz Tiessen #465

 Died: Feb 20 1863 in: Ladekopp?, Mol, S.Russia
 Buried: in:

 Spouse: Justina Johann Ensz #466
 Married: in:

The list from Helene (Thiessen) Braeul lists the birth of Justina in 1790. BHUnruh lists an Enns family in Ladekopp with daughter Justina, age 18 in 1808, thus born in 1790. In the same migration to Ladekopp in 1805 a Franz Thiessen arrived, age 23 in 1808, being born ca. 1785/6. Helene Braeul's list has the birth of Franz Thiessen as 1786. I am assuming that Justina and Franz of Ladekopp married each other. This would match the records of Helene Braeul.
