Daughter Epp: Agatha Epp

3 Daughter Agatha Epp married Abraham Lutzer of Peterhagen, Germany. An Abraham Lutzer family is listed in Peterhagen in the 1770s and 1780s and from the family name of the children, it is probable that they were a family of German origin. The family is mentioned in the Matrikel of 1804, listing a daughter Agatha, who was the wife of Abraham Lutzer. The name of the father is not given. It is probable that the Abraham Lutzer family had two daughters at home, Maria and Agatha, and that the daughter Agatha Epp-57. It appears that Abraham Lutzer married for a second time to Maria Wiens-53.

By 1808 the Abraham Lutzer family was probably well-to-do and is listed as owning the following property: 2 wagons, 1 plow, 7 horses, 17 cattle, 7 sheep, 10 loads of food. The family at this time consisted of daughter Agatha, age 20, her husband Abraham Lutzer, age 26, and their children Abraham and Agatha, age 1. It seems likely that her husband was her first husband, Abraham Lutzer born May 2, 1782, the son of Johann Lutzer (1750-1800). He emigrated to Peterhagen, Germany, and settled in Peterhagen in 1805. His father Lutzer was a brother of Abraham Lutzer and the father of the Lutzer family in 1800 and founder of the Lutzer family in 1800.

It appears that Abraham Lutzer was registered in the census of 1808 in the village of Peterhagen, Germany. The other names
