

28. J.H. Wood, op.cit., 259.

29. Wood, op.cit., 259.

30. See The Golden Years, op.cit., 149.

31. See Profile 1974, op.cit., 265-290, for a listing of her family to the fourth generation.

32. Marsh, op.cit., 351.

33. Wood does not list them in any of the Melitarcha villages.

34. Peter Pegler, "Melitarcha des Familie Peter Pegler" Unpublished manuscript received courtesy of Richard Thiesner, 51111 Road, P.O. It is noted that this section is based on the recollections of grandfather Heinrich Pegler (1816-1919). The original manuscript which was loaned to Peter Pegler (1890-1970) was loaned to the young in 1904. It is possible that the parents Heinrich Pegler and pioneer Wixhoff in Muntar and that their son Peter Pegler built a small house by the woodlot where he made his living as a shepherd.

35. Peter Pegler (1890-1970) was the grandfather of David C. Pagehr (1895-1990) the founder of Pagehr's Printing in Winnipeg. This information courtesy of his daughter Mrs. Leona Hixson Lafayette, Indiana, 1990.

36. Marsh, op.cit., 325.

37. Ted Schelleberg, "The Klassen Heritage", Unpublished paper prepared for a Klassen Family Reunion held Lehigh, Kansas, June 2, 1968. Received courtesy of Ben Neufeld, Dinuba, California. I also acknowledge with special thanks genealogist Allan Peters, Fresno, California, who was kind enough to show the information on the family of Julius Klassen, Tingo, during my visit there on February 2, 1988.

38. Allen Peters, Family Records, Volume 2, Unpublished compilation. This is also confirmed by Peter M. Peters, Familie Melitarcha of Marlin J. Parkman, Rudolph, Carl, Paul, (Johann C. Parkman, 1811-1890, Kansas, 1901, 2, above to Peter M. Peters, "and the widow of the Melitarcha in December 24, 1892, at 2 o'clock on the morning of the sheep ranch of the Melitarcha, she had died, and the age of 70 years, 4 months and 10 days. She was mother of 11 children and had been married to the Melitarcha for 22 years."

39. There are several other families of Melitarcha living in village may be although they were not recognized during the first decade after the founding in 1912. The name of the Melitarcha family during the 1920's to early 1960's. The Melitarcha family