

Son Abraham Klassen (1823-1900) worked for some years in Plumeret, and then started his own lumberyard in New York where he prospered. He lost much of his money due to a fire, because of which he moved to Englewood where he took over a Wirtschaft. At this time of despair he joined the Kleine Gemeinde and in 1869 he became a member of that Church. 47

Gen	Name	B. M.	Marriage	D. M.
1	Agnes Engler	Aug 20, 1792	Oct 20, 1811	Nov 21, 1860
2	John Klassen	Jul 19, 1795		Oct 20, 1811
3	Helen Klassen	Aug 25, 1812		Nov 21, 1860
4	David Klassen			Jul 1, 1812
5	Agnes Klassen	Aug 20, 1814
6	John Klassen	Oct 11, 1814		Jul 20, 1867
7	John Klassen	Oct 21, 1816
8	Anna Klassen	Oct 11, 1816		Aug 1, 1861
9	John Klassen	Oct 14, 1818		Nov 1, 1861
10	John Klassen	Nov 9, 1820
11	John Klassen	Jan 25, 1823
12	Georg Kopp	of Trier
13	John Klassen	May 21, 1825		Nov 20, 1860
14	Abraham Klassen	of Trier
15	Abraham Klassen	Sept 2, 1828	Nov 15, 1851	Aug 20, 1870
16	Helen Klassen	May 20, 1830		Nov 5, 1871
17	Adolph Klassen	Dec 9, 1830		Mar 21, 1870
18	John Klassen	of Cologne
19	Anna Klassen	Apr 20, 1830		Nov 9, 1860
20	John Klassen	of Cologne
21	Mary Klassen	Apr 19, 1835		Nov 5, 1871
22	Isaac Engler	of Plumeret

Daughter Katharina Engler (1800-1860) married John Klassen (1800-1860) in 1811. Their children were: John Klassen (1811-1867), Agnes Klassen (1812-1860), David Klassen (1814-1861), John Klassen (1816-1867), Anna Klassen (1818-1861), John Klassen (1820-1861), John Klassen (1823-1860), Georg Kopp (1825-1860), Abraham Klassen (1828-1870), Helen Klassen (1830-1871), Adolph Klassen (1830-1870), John Klassen (1835-1860), Mary Klassen (1835-1871), Isaac Engler (1835-1860). The children of John Klassen and Katharina Engler were: John Klassen (1811-1867), Agnes Klassen (1812-1860), David Klassen (1814-1861), John Klassen (1816-1867), Anna Klassen (1818-1861), John Klassen (1820-1861), John Klassen (1823-1860), Georg Kopp (1825-1860), Abraham Klassen (1828-1870), Helen Klassen (1830-1871), Adolph Klassen (1830-1870), John Klassen (1835-1860), Mary Klassen (1835-1871), Isaac Engler (1835-1860). 48

Son John Klassen (1823-1900) worked for some years in Plumeret, and then started his own lumberyard in New York where he prospered. He lost much of his money due to a fire, because of which he moved to Englewood where he took over a Wirtschaft. At this time of despair he joined the Kleine Gemeinde and in 1869 he became a member of that Church. 47