

11. Pat van Nes, op.cit., 27.

12. See Profile, 233-238.

13. Melvin O. Unruh and Gerhard G. Baergen, The Baergen Heritage 1725-1975. (Saskatoon, Sask., 1975), 3-9. Courtesy of Tabor College, Hillsboro, Kansas.

14. Johan Fast (1813-1892), "Family Album of Johan Fast Schoenau", Unpublished family records, courtesy of Dr. Leland Harder, North Newton, Kansas.

15. Unruh, op.cit., 309 and 347. This conclusion is somewhat speculative, as the 1804 emigration records indicate that the wife of Jakob von Baergen was a Niessen (and in brackets deceased) but no first name is given. The 1808 Revisions Liste shows his wife as Elizabeth born 1772. On the assumption that she was the same person, and not a third wife, her name would be Elizabeth Niessen.

16. Peter Fast, "Wiederholtes Tagebuch und Sonstige Wichtige Chroniken Angefangen den 8 Januar 1907", Unpublished Journal, Jansen, Nebraska, 81. Courtesy of Tabor College, Hillsboro, Kansas. February 8, 1989.

17. See "Daniel Fast Genealogy", Pioneers and Pilgrims. to be published as Volume five of the Kleine Gemeinde Historical Series, hopefully in 1990.

18. His son Isaac married the daughter of Cornelius Toews of Lindenau, grandfather of Kleine Gemeinde Aeltester Peter Toews. See Profile, Chapter 17.

19. Elected minister in 1805, and father of Johan F. Friesen, the third Aeltester of the Kleine Gemeinde. See Profile, 270-274 for a listing of his family.

20. His son Cornelius (born 1804) was the father of Helena Dyck, who married Gerhard Doerksen (1825-1882), Fischau, who settled in Rosenfeld, East Reserve, Manitoba, in 1874. Profile, 51.

21. He may have been the father-in-law of Johan Esau of Fischau. See Cornelius Esau Genealogy 1772 cf.

22. Grandfather of the Wiebe brothers who settled in Blumenort, Manitoba, in 1874. Profile, 26, 34, 37, and 711.

23. Johan Fast (1813-1892), "Family album", Courtesy of Dr. Leland Harder, North Newton, Kansas.

24. Unruh, op.cit., 309.

25. Mike Hornbaker. The Bergen Genealogy, Box 123, Maize, Kansas, 1983, 120 pages, and updates.