

//

41. Gustav Reimer, "Letter to Karl Heinrich Richert, March 24, 1842, op.cit.. Courtesy of Mike Hornbaker.

42. Unruh, op.cit., 336.

43. Ulrich Ducek, op.cit.. The periodical was published by the von Bergen Family Association founded by Fritz Bergen (1900-1941). Der Berg undoubtedly contains invaluable information pertaining to the history of the von Beargen family. I again acknowledge my indebtedness to Mike Hornbaker for referring me to this material.

44. Gustav Reimer, Letter to K Richard, January 5, 1942, op.cit.. This information does not seem quite correct as there is not Gerhard Ensz Family listed in Lichtenau in 1808. There is a Julius Ensz listed on Wirtschaft 2 in Blumenort, Moltschna, who is married to a Gertruda Bergen. Since the names Judith and Gertruda have seemingly been used interchangeably in the earlier Prussian records referred to in the letters of Gustav Reimer, op.cit., the Mrs Julius Enns in Blumenort, may be the daughter of Wilhelm von Beragen (c.1735-1805). This is of course mere speculation at this point.

45. Unruh, op.cit., 336.

46. See Jakob Heidebrecht Genealogy, to be published in Pioneers and Pilgrims.

47. For a listing of the family of his son Jakob Isaac (1813-1881) see Profile, 276.

48. See "Abraham Kornelsen Genealogy", Profile, 213-216.

49. See "Daniel Fast Genealogy", to be published in Pioneers and Pilgrims, for a brief discussion of the descendants of this family.

50. See "Daniel Fast Genealogy", op.cit..