3 The oldest daughter Maria Bearg was married to Jakob Friesen who later moved from Schwesterthal, Crimea, to Nikolaifeld, Sagrodowka. It is reported that he served his Gemeinde as Aeltester.²⁷ The family had four sons and three daughters. Jakob Friesen married for a second time. The ages of the children are not available at the present time.

In a letter of 1898 Peter Bearg Junior of Hochstadt, Manitoba inquired as to the whereabouts of their daughter Justina Friesen who was married to a Peter Thiessen. Daughter Maria Friesen married Abraham Martens who had spent four years in the Forstei. After the marriage the family moved to Neu-Samara together with his brothers Peter and Franz. In 1925 they moved to Manitoba settling among the Kleine Gemeinde relatives in Prairie Rose (Landmark). Here son Peter Martens married Helena B. Koop and daughter Margaret married Peter J. Koop who were their mothers first cousins. Daughter Lena Friesen married Peter Schmidt and settled in the Oak Bluff area.

Son Peter Friesen lived in Sagradowfka and in 1925 moved to Prairie Rose, Manitoba, and later to Alberta. Son Johan Friesen remained in Russia with his family except for one son who was sent along to Manitoba with the other relatives because he was almost of military age at the time. Son Thoman Friesen moved to the United States and remained a bachelor all his days. Nothing further is known about son Jakob Friesen at this time.
