

3 1/2" 5" 2

Kornelius Loopp      Margaretha

KORNELIUS LOOPP

Kornelius Loopp was born in South Russia, and was there until his death. It was his education in a school in South Russia, and he was an outspoken man.

He was captured on May 17, 1877 and joined the Lutheran Church. He met and married Margaretha Penner on May 20, 1879. There is no birthdate known of Margaretha Penner. Two children were born to them:

Kornelius - July 20, 1880 - died October 22, 1880

Abraham - September 3, 1881 - died September 7, 1881

Margaretha (Penner) Loopp, died September 6, 1881 and is buried in Russia.

After the death of his wife, Kornelius Loopp married Margaretha Schellenberg on June 15, 1882. Margaretha Schellenberg was born April 4, 1859.

Kornelius and Margaretha (Schellenberg) Loopp were the parents of seven children: Jakob, Maria, Justina, Kornelius, Jakob, Kornelius and Abraham.

They lived in Tiegenhagen, South Russia where Kornelius was a farmer and an auctioneer. He travelled extensively throughout South Russia, serving as auctioneer, with Jakob J. Braun, his nephew, as his secretary.

After a time when the Revolution broke out in Russia,