

34. See Peter P. Isaac, 4-49, for the full story of the Isaac clan, including the family of Franz Isaac (1784-1853) and his son Johan Isaac (1806-1864), whose family settled in Gruenfeld, Manitoba in 1874.

35. Woltner, 126.

36. See Ben Neufeld, op.cit. See also D. Platt, "Buschman Families in the Kleine Gemeinde", Unpublished paper, 1969.

37. See Herman Thiessen, Martin Thiessen und seine Nachkommen 1737-1977, (Breslauer Str. 3, 167 Burgdorf, West Germany, 1977), 8. See also The Golden Years, 172.

38. His daughter Helena was married to Johan S. Friesen and settled in Jansen, Nebraska. Profile, 16 and 105.

39. Profile, 282-291.

40. It appears that Bernhard Fast (born 1790) was the brother of Sarah Fast who married Peter W. Warkentin, son of Martin Warkentin of Blumstein, see Martin Warkentin Genealogy cf.; and Helena Fast who married Peter Reimer, son of Johan Reimer, Muensterberg. See Gus Reimer, op.cit. See also Johan K. Fast, "Stamm Familienregister Fast und Epp vom Jahre 1758-1970 prepared from the records of Gerhard J. Fast", Oakland Ave, Winnipeg, Manitoba. Courtesy of Mennonite Genealogy Inc., 1988.

41. Peter Isaac, 13.

42. The Golden Years, 282.

43. The Golden Years, 305 and 315.

44. Peter Fast, II, reports that her son Jakob Janzen died in Rosenort on December 14, 1862. Another son Abraham Janzen, lived in rather limited circumstances in Oklahoma in 1907. A daughter who had been married to a M^r Jakob Thiessen (she was a widow in 1907) was very well off financially, had a large family of girls whose husbands were all well to do.

45. Franz Kroeker was the brother-in-law to Peter Fast. See "Jakob Barkman Genealogy" cf.

46. Peter Fast, 73.

47. Peter Fast, "Story of my grandfather, Peter Fast, written in rhyme in 1906" translated by Margaretha Dick, his grand daughter in 1976. As published by Jo Ferguson, 15.

48. Peter Fast, 59.

49. Peter Fast, 63.

50. Peter Fast, 77.

51. M.B. Fast, 163 and 167.

52. M.B. Fast reports that he went to Tiegwerweide to the school of his uncle Kornelius Fast, at the time that his parents moved onto the land. M.B. Fast, Mitteilungen, 53.

53. Peter Fast, 58.

54. Henry Fast, Profile, 103.

55. M.B. Fast, 101 and 108.

56. M.B. Fast, 137 and 139.

57. He also refers to a cousin Kornelius Fast of Steinfeld. Hopefully more information will come to light allowing for a more complete identification of some of these family members. M.B. Fast, ibid.

58. Peter Fast, 18.

59. Compare with Clara Buschman, The Family Record of Peter F. Warkentin 1834-1907 and Wilhelmina (Wiens) Warkentin 1843-1935, (Hutchinson, Kansas, 1972), page 8 and 193, who gives the birth date as May 18, which may be merely a typographical error since it is also recorded as November 30, 1834, later in the book.

60. See also "Peter F. Warkentin, Jansen, Nebraska, later Lehigh, Kansas", Unpublished sketch by this writer revised October 11, 1988.

61. Clara Buschman, 9 and 193.

62. The reference to the year 1832 does not seem correct since both references to this move indicate that son Peter was already born at the time of the move.

63. Bernhard Warkentin, "Familien-Verzeichnis", n.d. Courtesy of D.A. Haury, M.A., Newton, Kansas, 1987.

64. Unruh, 318. The matter is confused by the fact that there were four Warkentin families listed in Altona in the 1808 Revisions Liste as follows: (1) Johan Warkentin (born 1750) Wirtschaft 11, he was the father of Duerck Warkentin (1788-1837) the father of Aeltester Dirk Warkentin (1815-1869). See Harry Warkentin, "The Warkentin Genealogy 1788-1983", Unpublished paper C.M.B.C., Winnipeg, Manitoba, 1983. (2) Aeron Warkentin (born 1776) Wirtschaft 12. (3) Jakob Warkentin (born 1783) Wirtschaft 13. (4) Johan Warkentin (born 1778) Wirtschaft 16. Given the ages of these families there is a possibility that they were all members of one and the same family.

Another family to be mentioned relative to Altona Warkentins is that of Jakob Warkentin (1833-1903) who settled in Marion County, Kansas, in 1877. Jakob Warkentin (1833-1903) was born in Altona, Molotschna, the son of Jakob Warkentin and Katharina Neufeld. His siblings that grew to adulthood were Aaron, Peter, Johan and Katharina. Jakob Warkentin (1833-1903) was married to Katharina Sommerfeld, born 1837 in Alexanderwohl. See Mrs. I.D. Warkentin, "The Warkentin Family" (Unpublished paper, prepared for Jim Warkentin, 1985), 7 pp. Received courtesy of Milton Harms, Moore, Oklahoma, August, 1989. Katharina Sommerfeld was the daughter of Heinrich Sommerfeld (1815-1887) who died at Alexanderwohl, Kansas. See Sophia Unruh, Sommerfeld Genealogy 1815 to 1972, (Newton, Kansas, 1972), 5.

65. This is based on the information of Clara Buschman, 9, that Peter Warkentin (1834-1907) was a cousin to Bernard Warkentin (1847-1908).

66. Peter Fast, 83. In German he states that they were "Nichte und Vetter".

67. Clara Buschman, 9.

68. Peter Fast, 83.

69. See "Cornelius Fast Genealogy", Unpublished Sketch, by the writer, 1989.

70. She was the daughter of Heinrich Wiens (born 1815) whose sister Anna Wiens (1840-1876) was the mother of Aeltester Jakob A. Wiebe. See "Wiens Families in the Kleine Gemeinde", cf., for additional information.

71. The information for this biography is taken primarily from the "Family Register" written by Wilhelmina Warkentin, nee Wiens, and translated and published by Clara Buschman, op.cit.

72. Clara Buschman, 9.

73. Profile, 110.

74. Miko Hornbaker, The Bergen History, (Self published, Box 192, Maize, Kansas, 67101), 31.

75. See "Peter Epp Genealogy 1690" for additional information regarding his family.

76. See "Johan Harms Genealogy" cf. for more information on this family.

Buschman
102