

77. See Gnadenau Gemeinde Buch, family 47, page 54. Peter Eitzen was born March 28, 1842, the son of Cornelius Eide (1800-1860) whose son Abraham Eitzen (1830-1906) was born in Lindenau, Molotschna. Rundschau, May 23, 1900. Courtesy of Henry Fast, Steinbach, Manitoba. See Chapter 21, Profile. The Peter Eitzen family evidently lived near Canton, Kansas, where Elizabeth was born. Clara Bachman, 170.

78. Peter Isaac, 7-8.

79. Peter Fast, 49.

80. I am indebted to Leland Harder, Newton, Kansas, for this information. Letters to the author January 9 and February 6, 1988. See also Raymond Wiebe, Hillsboro, Kansas, The City on the Prairie, (Hillsboro, Kansas, 1985), 28. By an oversight Johan and Elizabeth Fast are not listed in the Ship Records with son Johan and son-in-law Heinrich Flaming and family as published by D.A. Haurly, 5. See Leland Harder ed., "Items of Information about the descendants of Andreas (1816-1862) & Anganetha (1817-1877) Flaming", 9. Dr. Leland Harder, "Letter to the author June 24, 1989".

81. ~~Copy~~ Dr. Leland Harder, North Newton, Kansas, "Letter to the author" June 24, 1989.

82. Received courtesy Leland Harder, Newton, Kansas.

83. He was the son of Johan Harder and Elizabeth Plett, the sister to Cornelius S. Plett (1820-1900), who settled in Blumenhof, Manitoba, in 1875. See Johan Harder Genealogy et al.

84. Menno S. Harder, "A Brief Biography of Johann Harder 1836-1930". Unpublished paper, d. 3 pp. See also Johan Harder, From Annemfeld to Kansas 1874, (Clovis, California, 1983), 69 pp. Translated and edited by Evangeline Kroecker. See also William J. Johnson ed., Pictorial Highlights of Gnadenau, (Hillsboro, Kansas, 1874), 8, for a picture of Johan Harder. For a listing of the descendants of Johan Harder, see Menno S. Harder, The Harder Family Book, (Hillsboro, Kansas, 1952), Unpaginated approximately 100 pp.

85. David Harder was the father of Menno S. Harder and grandfather of Dr. Leland Harder, Newton, Kansas.

86. Information about their life in Hooker is found in Homeside Memories by Matilda Wiebe Suderman, published by the author in Newton, Kansas, in 1987.

87. William J. Johnson, 8. See also David V. Wiebe, Grace Meadow, 46 and 69. There seems to be some question here whether Heinrich Flaming moved to the Crimea or whether he emigrated from the Molotschna directly together with his parents in law in 1835.

88. Quoted by Leland Harder, "Items of Information About the Descendants of Andreas (1816-1862) and Anganetha (1817-1877) Flaming", 10-12.

89. For a listing of descendants see, John R. Wohlgenuth, The Peter Wohlgenuth Genealogy 1805-1975, (Peabody, Kansas, 1963), 61 pp.

90. Profile, 25. See Roy Loewen, op.cit., for further information on the Heinrich Wohlgenuth family.

91. Dr. Leland Harder, Letter to the author November 15, 1989. Dr. Harder and Kevin Enns-Rempel (Fresno) are presently preparing a paper on the infamous Martens land swindle.

92. Regina M. Becker, A Bundle of Living, Recollections of a Shafter Pioneer, (Shafter, Cal., 1986), A3.15, 19, A10, 35. I am grateful to Leland Harder for referring me to this interesting book.

93. Peter Isaac, 8 and 15-17.

94. Peter Fast, 43.

95. Henry Fast, Profile, 108. Here it is reported that son Peter P. Krause was born in Ladekopp.

96. Henry Fast, Profile, 106. It is possible that she may have moved back to her parental village after the death of her first husband since she is described as being from Schoenau. On the other hand the report may simply identify her as being from the Schoenau Fast.

97. For a listing of descendants see, Martha Goering, Descendants of Johan Krause 1816-1868, (Burrton, Kansas, 1969), 135 pp.

98. Henry Fast, Profile, 108.

99. Henry Fast, ibid.

100. Henry Fast, Profile, 108, 224 and 273.

101. Profile, 10.

102. Martha Goering, op.cit.

103. Jakob and Anna Krause, Letter to the Rundschau March 2, 1904. Courtesy of Henry Fast, Steinbach, Manitoba.

104. Unruh, 353.

105. Unruh, 323.

106. Dr. Carl Bangs, quoted in Sol Warkentin, "Heinrich and Maria Regehr Warkentin", Unpublished family study, page 9.

107. Bernhard Warkentin "Letters to David Goertz 1874-1875", Courtesy of D.A. Haurly, Mennonite Library and Archives, Bethel College, Newton, Kansas, September 1988.

108. In this letter Bernhard Warkentin goes on "He, as my father had written me previously, left his family and went to Turkey never to return home again. It seems as if this dear relative swindled several thousand from his father, and now he seems to be after his son, at least he is already facing failure and wants my advice, that is my help. I am in a real predicament. May God grant me means and a way in which I could serve this man, after that I would rather not hear from him." In a letter of May 22, 1874, Bernhard Warkentin writes, "I do hope my uncle, of whom I wrote you previously, has arrived in Summerfield and also that he has received hospitality somewhere."

109. Sol Warkentin, op.cit.

110. Eduard Fast, Utrecht, Netherlands. Family Records received courtesy of Alexander Fast, H. Wijnmalenstraat, 3555 VR Utrecht, 030-440515. 1968/1969. These records seem to follow the format of the "Family Album" of Johan Fast (1813-1892) of Schoenau, with the exception that they trace only the direct line of ancestry of Eduard Fast through Gerard Fast the son of Daniel Fast (1753-1829). These records do however contain a number of additional notations which add significantly to the original. Such as the information that Bernard Fast was married to the widow Johan Baerg, which immediately makes an entire string of conclusions and identifications possible. I am deeply indebted to Leland Harder, Newton, Kansas, for his kindness in forwarding these records to me.

111. Unruh, 336.

112. Unruh, 305.

113. Peter M. Priesen, 94.

114. Unruh, 331.