

1876 son Peter married Susanna Friesen the daughter of Cornelius von Reisen/Friesen who had immigrated to Russian in 1839 settling in the village of Altonau. In 1868 Cornelius Friesen was one of the founders of the Schoenfeld /Brasol settlement located 60 kilometers north of the Molotschna.<sup>28</sup> Upon the death of the parents Peter and his wife inherited the entire estate of the parents which was reported to have been considerable. The family remained in Russia during the Revolution and went through many tragic circumstances.

Gen	Name	Birth	Marriage	Death
4.	Agatha Heidebrecht	1827	1852	1890
m	Jak Heidebrecht	1829	Dec 13, 1890	30.2.1908
5.	Peter Heidebrecht	28.2.1853		1927 10.4.1921
m	Susanna Friesen	Jun 9, 1856	Oct 1, 1876	1929 4.3.1928
6.	Jakob Heidebrecht	15.8.1877		1935
m	Marie Cornies
6.	Peter Heidebrecht	22.1.1879		1937
m	Anna Schroeder		May 9, 1962
6.	Corn Heidebrecht	17.3.1883
m	Agatha Schroeder	1879		1867
6	Daughter Heidebrecht	1880		1884
6	Johan Heidebrecht	21.10.1889		fter the War
m	Margaret _____		a widow died of brain tumor one year before spouse.
6	Gerhard Heidebrecht	20.7.1891		1937
m	A widow
6	Willie Heidebrecht	1893		During War
m	Lena Janzen
6	David Heidebrecht	26.8.1896		1937
m	_____ Both lived with their daughter.
6	Abraham Heidebrecht	7.8.1898		During War
m	Ida Driedger Lives with her son.
6	Susie Heidebrecht	20.8.1895		Aug 1935
m	Peter Schroeder			During War.

Section Five: Peter Heidebrecht Family

3 Son Peter Heidebrecht was married for the first time to Catarina whose surname is not known. The couple had a daughter Agatha who died on October 4, 1817.<sup>29</sup> On May 11, 1813, Peter Heidebrecht married for the second time to Helena (Friesen) Friesen daughter of Isaac Friesen resident in Wirtschaft No 20 in Muensterberg one of the villages where the infant Fleine Gemeinde reform movement held its worship services during the early years.<sup>30</sup>

The information as to the children of Peter Heidebrecht Sr. has been obtained from a letter of April 5, 1911, in the Mennonitische Fundschatz written by Peter Fogalsky the grandson of Peter Heidebrecht Sr. This letter was discovered through the research of Stamba historicalian and teacher, Henry East. It is not possible to rank the children according to age as only the birth date of son Peter is known at this time.

Gen	Name	Birth	Marriage	Death
3.	Peter Heidebrecht	1787		