4 Son Peter Heidebrecht (1815-1896) married Aganetha Fast in 1846 in Blumstein. She was the daughter of Johan Fast (1793-1864) of Blumstein. See Martin Warkentin Genealogy cf. In 1868 they moved to Markuslandt near Einlage but after one year they moved on to Borosenko where they purchased 400 desjation of land. In 1874 they emigrated to Jansen, Nebraska, where they purchased 1280 acres of land. Like most other Heidebrechts associated with the Kleine Gemeinde they were quite well-to do. The Peter Heidebrechts remained in the Kleine Gemeinde church all their lives. Peter Heidebrecht (1815-1896) was a cousin to Cornelius Heidebrecht of Nikolaidorf, Molotschna.³¹

5 Daughter Aganetha Heidebrecht (1852-1833) married Johan P. Thiessen was a successful businessman and Nebraska State Senator. Daughter (Elizabeth) Heidebrecht married Abraham F. Thiessen was the famous advocate of the landless Mennonites in the Molotschna Colony, South Russia. Son Jakob F. Heidebrecht married for the second time to Agatha Warkentin who was born in Altonau, South Russia. He moved to Saskatchewan in 1906 and settled on 36-18-12 R.M. #166. Jakob Heidebrecht died in Eush Lake.³² Daughter Elizabeth Heidebrecht (1863-1958) married Martin M. Barkman the son of Johan M. Barkman of Jansen, Nebraska.³³ For additional information on the family of Peter Heidebrecht (1815-1896) see: Henry Fast, "The Kleine Gemeinde in the United States of America".³⁴ The list of children is not necessarily complete.³⁵
