

4 Daughter Maria Heidebrecht married Paul Rogalsky. In a letter to the Rundschau of January 28, 1885, Peter Rogalsky writes that his father Paul Rogalsky died on November 15, 1884 on the "Landgut" Chanekow, near Brazol, at the age of 63 1/2 years.³⁹ According to another letter in the Rundschau of May 21, 1890, his wife was still living in 1890. In 1911 their son Peter Rogalsky was resident in Memrik, Russia, from where he wrote the letter to the Rundschau on which much of this section is based.

4 The Gerhard Heidebrecht family was resident in Lichtenau, Molotschna, in 1876.⁴⁰ It appears that older brother Peter moved to Blumstein when he married and therefore it is possible that Gerhard took over his father's Wirtschaft in Lichtenau. In a letter of February 26, 1876, to his former neighbour Gerhard S. Kornelsen (1816-1894), who was about the same age, Gerhard Heidebrecht relates that he has 9 horses and 5 head of cattle, 4 of which are milk cows, and that he wants to slaughter 6 pigs that fall. He also refers to the recent birth of son Peter. In the letter of Peter Rogalsky, above referred to, Mrs Gerhard Heidebrecht was still alive in 1911.

5 It is also indicated that as of 1911 son Peter Heidebrecht was resident in Lindenort and son Gerhard Heidebrecht in Pretoria.

4 Son Jacob Heidebrecht may have married his cousin the daughter of Cornelius Heidebrecht (born 1808) of Niedaadorf. This view is supported by a letter of Peter F. Thiesen of Jansen, Nebraska, in the Rundschau of March 26, 1884, in which he mentions "that he visited Jacob Heidebrecht on the Brazol settlement as he had been instructed to do by his brother" presumably Peter Heidebrecht (1815-1896) of Jansen, Nebraska.⁴¹ See Section Five of Jacob Heidebrecht of Hermslag as did his brothers Johan and Peter.
