8. Jakob Isaac (1813-1881), who married Sara Sawatzky (1816-1894), and who was born in Lichtenau, appears to be their son. See Profile, 276 and 293.

9. Their daughter Sara married Peter Warkentin born 1789 son of Martin Warkentin of Blumstein and daughter Helena married Peter Reimer son of Johan Reimer of Muensterberg, while son Johan Fast married Anna Warkentin daughter of Johan Warkentin of Blumenort, all families with impressive Kleine connections.

11. It is noteworthy that there were three family heads listed in the 1803 Revisions Liste in Lichtenau who were married to Andres girls: a) Wilhelm Bergen (born 1774) Wirtschaft 12, married Margaretha Andres (born 1768). For more information about this family see "Von Baergen Families in the Kleine Gemeinde", Unpublished family sketch, 1989, by the author; b) Abraham Isaac (born 1775) Wirtschaft 14 married Catarina Andres (born 1771). Their son Jakob Isaac (born 1812) married Sara Sawatzky of Orloff a niece of the second Kleine Gemeinde Aeltester Abraham Friesen (1782-1849). See Profile, 276. In addition a Peter Andres (born 1765) is listed in the 1803 emigration records as traveling with the Wilh. von Bargaen family. See Unruh, op.cit., 313, 333, 341 and 343.

14. In a letter of April 23, 1878, Cornelius Heidebrecht, Nikolaidorf, refers to Peter Fenner (presumably of Blumenort, Manitoba) as his uncle. In a letter of May 7, 1881, he refers to Peter Fenner as his aged in law or "Schwager". Peter Fenner (1816-1881) Blumenort, Manitoba, was the son of Peter Fenner and Catharina Lepp. Accordingly there is some speculation that he may be connected to Cornelius Heidebrecht (1808-1870) through the Lepp family. This is reinforced by another reference to Jakob W. Friesen (1808-1887) who was married to Agathe Lepp (1808-1881) as a "Schwager". Courtesy of Henry Fast.

This information was critical in determining that Cornelius Heidebrecht (born 1808) and Cornelius Heidebrecht of Nikolaidorf were one and the same person. Henry Fast had earlier found the information that Peter Heidebrecht (1815-1870) was the son of a Peter Heidebrecht. The
