

22. Hilda Heidebrecht adds that Heinrich Fleming already had two children from his first wife Funk.

23. The information as the vital statistics of the family of Diedrich Heidebrecht (1871-1936) is courtesy of granddaughter Hilda Heidebrecht, Box 1583, Coaldale, Alberta, T0K 0L0. Diedrich Heidebrecht (1842-1903) had five children with his first wife, namely, Peter, Anna, Helena, Maria and Dietrich. Two children were born of the second marriage, namely, Katherina and Elizabeth. Son Peter Heidebrecht married Elizabeth (Wiebe) Dirks and they were the parents of Hilda Heidebrecht.

24. In the letter Cornelius Heidebrecht asks whether his nephew Cornelius Friesen has also joined the Holdemans Gemeinde. See Profile, op.cit., 279-282, for further information on this family.

30. Uhruh, 333. Her maiden name may also have been Thiessen since Uhruh refers to Thiessen in one place, page 317, and Friesen in another, page 333. Henry Fast, Steinbach, Manitoba, has speculated that the second wife Helena Friesen was a part Neufeld as her son Peter Heidebrecht (1815-1896) is referred to as a cousin of Mrs. Fern Toewy, nee Katharina Neufeld (1824-1896) who was also a cousin to Abraham and Peter Neufeld of Inman, Kansas, see Profile 289-290, Acilester Hein Goossen and Gerhard Neufeld of Minnesota, in a letter to the Fundschat of October 30, 1895, by Bernard Fast (born 1871), son of Bernard Fast (born 1790) of Lichtenau, whose wife Helena Neufeld (born 1823) was also a cousin. See also letter of April 27, 1896.
