5 Son Abraham E.Kornelsen (1845-1893) was born in Konteniusfeld and in 1860 he moved to the Crimea together with his parents. In 1865 he was converted and joined the Grosse Gemeinde. He married Maria, the daughter of Jakob Wiens and Katharina Wall, in 1866.<sup>198</sup> The next year the young family committed themselves to the Kleine Gemeinde and adhered to their covenants for the remainder of their days.<sup>199</sup>

In 1874, the family left the village of Hoffnungsberg, Crimea, and emigrated to Manitoba, Canada, settling in the village of Heuboden. In 1883, Abraham Kornelsen was elected as a deacon of the East Reserve Kleine Gemeinde. He came to a tragic death when he was kicked by a horse. His widow married for the second time to Rev. Cornelius L.Friesen (1841-1923) of Jansen, Nebraska. Sons Johan and Isaac and daughter Katharina Isaac lived in Kansas.

5 Son Jakob E.Kornelsen (1848-1902) married Maria Wiens, and emigrated to America, together with his parents, and the main contingent of the K.M.B. They were one of the pioneer families in the village of Gnadenu, south east of Hillsboro. Jakob Kornelsen is listed as one of the family heads in Gnadenu in the 1875 Census.<sup>200</sup> Johan P. Friesen has listed eight children but ages are only recorded for three. The family is listed as No. 70 in the Gnadenu Gemeindebuch No. One. It is recorded that the family had foster sons Jakob Kornelsen and Franz Byenster.

4 Johan S.Kornelsen (1808-1889) was married twice, for the first time to Agata Durksen, who was the mother of Johan Kornelsen (1837-1913) and Mrs Cornelius Neufeld, nee Agatha Kornelsen (1839-1896), who settled in Henderson, Nebraska, in 1879. Evidently Johan S.Kornelsen had two children with his first wife and three with the second.<sup>201</sup> The Johan S.Kornelsen family lived in Neukirch where he purchased a Wirtschaft in 1841 which remained in the family for fifty years. The second Mrs. Johan Kornelsen died in 1877 of dropsy. Johan S.Kornelsen died December 8, 1889, having been sick for 14 years of kidney disease.
