

George & Mary Warkentin's youngest son on page 9

⑤ My Brother Henry

Henry B. Warkentin was born the youngest son of George and Mary Nikkel Warkentin, grandson of Aron Warkentin. He was born October 25, 1930, in Corn, Oklahoma.

He had two sisters; Edna and Marie, and two brothers; Menno and Clarence.

In 1941, he with his parents moved to Reedley, California.

On confession of his faith in our Lord Jesus Christ, he was baptist and joined the Reedley Mennonite Brethern Church.

Henry's father passed away in 1947, when Henry was approximately 16 years of age.

On April 20, 1954, Henry and Anna Rose Dick Warkentin were married. One of the first couples to be wed in the newly built Mennonite Brethern Church of Reedley, California.

Henry had two sons. The eldest, George Henry Warkentin was born February 18, 1955. The youngest, Dennis Harvey Warkentin was born August 19, 1959.

X Henry's occupation consisted of; being a trucker. He hauled grain during harvest time. Then he hauled produce from Reedley to the market places in Los Angeles, San Francisco, or Oakland, California.

In January 1960, he moved his family to Fresno, California. Here he became a custodian in a bank and later in 1968 in a sprinkler manufacturing plant.

Henry and wife Anna joined Bethany M. B. Church in Fresno on June 25, 1961. Later his sons were baptist and joined this church.

Henry developed a diabetic condition in 1978. On February 20, 1990, he died of a heart attack and diabetic condition.

Son, George is employed for a Baptist Retirement Village.

Son, Dennis is employed for a local newspaper.

Widow, Anna is employed in a sprinkler manufacturing plant.