1. Jakob Barkman, the the forefather of the Kleine Gemeinde Barkman family was born in 1765.1 He was married to Margaretha Wiens.2 The place of residence of the family is associated with the village of Neustaedterwald, West Prussia, since some of the children appear to be born there.3 It appears that Jakob Barkman Sr. died sometime before 1812.4

The village of Neustaedterwald was located some two miles east of Petershagen where Klaas E.Reimer, founding Aeltester of the Kleine Gemeinde, was born in 1770, and <sup>approximately</sup> ~~some~~ two miles west of the Tiegenhagen the place of the worship for the Flemish Mennonites in that area.5 In 1776 the village of Neustaedterwald consisted of 28 family of who two-thirds were were freeholding farmers.

According to available church records the children of Jakob Barkman Sr. were not all born or baptised in the same place. Daughters Margaretha and Catharina were born in Neustaedterwald and Margaretha also died there. Son Martin was baptied in Rosenort on June 11, 1815, while daughter Anna was baptised in Tiegenhagen on June 14, 1812.6
