The family originally settled in the Gnadenu village where they are listed on the second Wirtschaft west of the school house between teacher Johan Harder and Peter Wohlgemuth. In 1877 Peter Barkman is also listed as one of the trustees of the K.M.B. in Gnadenu.<sup>80</sup> In 1878 they moved onto their own homestead where they made their home.<sup>81</sup> The Peter M. Barkmans also had two foster sons, Edwart Dewald (born May 1894) and Wilhelm Dewald (born Aug 1896).

4. Daughter Anna Barkman married Johan Wohlgemuth a son of Peter Wohlgemuth (1805-1873) and a brother to Heinrich Wohlgemuth (1849-1899) of Blumenhof, Manitoba. The Johan Wohlgemuth family later moved to Herbert, Saskatchewan. Son Martin G. Barkman married Anna Buschman the daughter of Heinrich Buschman of Gnadenu. The family moved to Korn, Oklahoma. Son Jakob G. Barkman married Maria Hart. In his younger years he served as a school teacher and in 1907 he was elected as a minister of the Gnadenu K.M.B.<sup>82</sup> Son Peter G. Barkman married Katharina Krause. The family lived in Kansas, Oklahoma, and in Dinuaba, California where he died after a short illness. Daughter Maria Barkman and her husband Gerhard Siemens moved to Herbert, Saskatchewan.<sup>83</sup> Son Johan Barkman and his wife Matilda Stucky spent over 40 years as missionaries to the Belgian Congo. Son Diedrich G. Barkman and daughter Aganetha Barkman married brother and sister Jakob E. Priebe and Elizabeth Priebe.<sup>84</sup> Both families moved to Saskatchewan settling as pioneers in the Herbert area.<sup>85</sup>
