

Two, op.cit., 28-31.

42. In a letter to the Rundschau of May 28, 1890, Johan G. Barkman (1858-1937) asks for information regarding his uncles Jakob Giesbrecht, Blumstein, and Wilhelm Giesbrecht. The theory that his mother, nee Elizabeth Giesbrecht, was a sister to Gerhard Giesbrecht (1816-1863) is enhanced by a letter of W. Giesbrecht in the Rundschau of March 29, 1899, where he states that Jakob Barkman, presumably Jakob G. Barkman (1856-1899), is his cousin. I am indebted to Henry Fast, Steinbach, Manitoba, for referring me to this most valuable information.

51. She later wrote the Rundschau inquiring as to her uncle Jakob Bergman in Schoensee. It is noted again that much of the information regarding those members of the Barkman family who settled in Jansen, Nebraska, is based on the historical sketch by Henry Fast, Steinbach, Manitoba, published in Profile.
SOA They were in points of well known Steinbach leader and historian John C. Reimer

52. See M.B. Fast, Reisebericht, op.cit., 62, where M.B. Fast refers to the Wirtschaft of his grandfather Martin J. Barkman and notes that the owners, his grandfather and later his uncle Johan Barkman, have already rested for many years in the quiet
