

69. Peter Fast, op.cit..

70. Henry Fast, op.cit., 103.

71. Peter Fast, op.cit., 18.

72. See Elizabeth Fast, Zur Erinnerung an Mutter Elizabeth Fast, (Reedley, Cal., 1932), 32 pp, for further information regarding the Thiessen family.

73. Ibid..

74. Henry Fast, op.cit., 108.

75. Martin B. Fast, Reisebericht, op.cit., 143.

76. Henry Fast, op.cit..

77. According to the Korn K.M.B. Gemeinde Buch, Martin G. Barkman was born in Rueckenau, on February 23, 1868. The year 1869 <sup>given</sup> for the move to the Crimea is given by Jakob G. Barkman. Jakob G. Barkman, "Letters to Alberta Pantle June 7, 1944 and July 19, 1944", From Tabor College, courtesy Roy Loewen, Blumenort, Manitoba. March, 1988.

78. Jakob A. Wiebe, "Gnadenau Gemeinde Buch", Unpublished Register, Courtesy of Tabor College, Hillsboro, Kansas.

79. See Jo Ferguson, Barkman Family Volume One, op.cit., 15. This incident is also mentioned by C.F. Plett, The Story of the Krimmer Mennonite Brethren Church, (Hillsboro, 1985), 75, who quotes H.F. Friesen, History of Turkey Hard Wheat in the U.S.A.

80. David V. Wiebe, Grace Meadow, (Hillsboro, 1967), 55.

81. Jakob G. Barkman, op.cit.. For the full story of the Peter M. Barkman family and settlement in Gnadenau, see Jo Ferguson, The Barkman Family Volumes One and Two, published in 1982 and 1985 respectively. These are both very well done family studies which provide a listing of the descendants of Peter M. Barkman and the history of his children and grandchildren.

82. C.F. Plett, op.cit., 81.

83. Jo Ferguson, Barkman Family Volume One, op.cit., 261.

84. Gnadenau Gemeinde Buch, op.cit., 82-82. It appears that they were the children of Jakob Priebe (born 1860) and Helena Enns (1862-1913) who was the daughter of Cornelius Enns (1832-1879) who baptised Jakob A. Wiebe in 1869. Cornelius Enns was oldest son