

OBITUARY - FERDINAND SCHULTZ

1.6.8.2

Funeral services for Ferdinand Schultz, Salt Lake City, Utah; formerly of Mt. Lake will be held today (Thursday) 10 a.m., at the Alliance Missionary church with the Rev. Robert Karklin and the Rev. Henry ___ officiating. Interment will be in Mt. Lake cemetery.

Visitation is at the church one hour prior to the services today (Thursday).

Mr. Schultz passed away Saturday, Mar. 11, in Salt Lake City of an apparent heart attack.

He was born Nov. 9, 1908 at Mt. Lake, the son of David D. and Anna Eitzen Schultz. He attended Mt. Lake high school, St. Paul Bible college, Nyack college, New York; John Fletcher college, University Park, Ia., and the University of Minnesota. Mr. Schultz was a teacher and lecturer and taught in many different areas. He also worked in various industries. For the past years he was a resident of Salt Lake City, where he was retired.

Survivors include four sisters. Mrs. Cornelius (Hilda) Tieszen, Rochester; Susan Schultz, and Elizabeth Schultz, both of Wilmore Ky., and Mrs. Robert (Frieda) Ranney, Minneapolis and one brother, Samuel Schultz, Wheaton, Ill.

Casket bearers at the services will be David I. Schultz, Albert Schultz, Henry Schultz, Arlo Esau, John E. Jantzen and Frank Reimer.